5 TAKE PART IN QUALIFYING ROUNDS HERE

Miss Florence Halloran Again Favorite to Win Title.

THIRTY-FIVE feminine golfers from various parts of the state took part in the qualifying round of the first of the annual state championship on the links of the Ogden Golf and Country club at 10 a. m. today. Miss Florence Halloran, state holder for the past five years, and the big favorite to again win the first flight title, took part in the first flight play, while the next 14, if there are enough players, will be in the second flight.

Medalist today will receive a large trophy. Trophies will also be awarded to the winners and runners-up in each flight.

The course at the club is in excellent condition and keen competition is expected to result.

Match play will commence daily during the tournament at 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. according to Lewis Crook, professional at Ogden club. Ogdenites are pinning their hopes for a state championship on Mrs. A. P. Bigelow and Mrs. Martin Brown. Both of these women have improved materially during the present season and are slated to give Miss Halloran plenty of competition.

The vast experience of Miss Halloran easily stamps her as the favorite. She has completed in golf meets in 12 of the 13 years during the present season and has covered herself with glory. Taking part in tournaments in California, Canada, St. Louis and other places, she has never been defeated in a single round when she won the title for the fifth consecutive time.

SLATED TO STAR.
Mrs. E. J. Henke and Miss Ada Child are some of the other Ogden women slated to star in the tournament.

Miss Olive Benson of the Salt Lake Golf and Country club and Mrs. D. Mulr of Nibley Park are both strong favorites and will have plenty of backers on the scene.

Lewis Crook, pro at the local club, will have charge of the state tournament.

"From the interest manifested in this event, competition should be keen," said Mr. Crook today. "All matches will commence at the hours stated and close, held, engaged play will no doubt result."

His single at Cleveland Sunday, secured him a tie for the 400 record, the hit making his average for the season slightly above that mark. The great ties the record of Jesse Burkett, Burkett, however, set the three-year record before the foul strike rule became effective.

HORNSBY AMONG SELECT HITTERS

First Man In Nationals Since 1899 to Attain .400 Rank.

CHICAGO, Oct. 2.—Rogers Hornsby, of the St. Louis Cardinals, Sunday batted himself into the hall of fame among the select .400 hitters, the first man in the National league to accomplish the feat since 1899, when Ed Delahanty, of the Philadelphia club, won the batting honors with an average of .408. Hornsby's mark for the season is .401. This is the third consecutive year the St. Louis star has won the batting championship of the senior major league circuit.

Hornsby's name will be recorded along with those of J. Garretts of Chicago, who hit .401 in 1876; Cap Anson, Chicago, who finished with .407 in 1879, and who in 1887 made a mark of .421; J. Stenzel, Pittsburgh, who made a mark of .409 in 1892; Hugh Duffy, of Boston, with .438 in 1894; Jess Burkett, who won the championship in 1895, and 1896, with marks of .423 and .410, while a member of the Cleveland club; Willie Keeler, who topped the hitters with .432 while with Brooklyn in 1897, and Ed Delahanty, the last of the .400 hitters until the present day.

NEW HOME RUN KING ON THRONE

Hornsby's 42 Circuit Hits 17 Less Than Ruth Made Last Year.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—(By the Associated Press)—Rogers Hornsby, besides batting himself into baseball's hall of fame, as the first National league to finish with a mark of over .400 in 23 years, has succeeded Babe Ruth as home run king.

Hornsby finished the season with 42 circuit clouts, 17 behind Ruth's record crop of 59 the season before. Ken Williams of the St. Louis Browns, leading the American league, was three behind the Cardinals' star with 39. "Tiltie" Walker, chief of Connie Mack's sluggers, occupied third place with 37 and the former monarch Ruth registered 35 four-base blows.

RUTH FAILS TO GAIN
Ruth, despite the handicap of a late start, due to his suspension, was unable to gain on Hornsby from the time he rejoined the Yankees on May 20. The Cardinal clouter had six home runs when the Babe was restored to good standing and finished the season seven ahead of his Yankee rival.

Williams, who, with Walter Henline of the Phillies, holds the unusual distinction of hitting three home runs in a single game this season, led the home run sluggers at the time of Ruth's re-entry, with 11 to his credit. The Browns' star collected his homers in sports however while Hornsby plugged away at the fences at a stiff consistent pace.

Analysis of the home run records shows Hornsby and Walker each hit two circuit blows in a single game. Ruth has performed the feat four times.

ODD TEAM RESULTS.
An odd feature of the team record for the season is that the Philadelphia club, occupying seventh place in both leagues, led each circuit in home run clouting. The Athletics, with Walker and King Miller leading the assault, amassed 111 while the Phillies, aided by Cy Williams, Cliff Lee, Parkinson and Henline, reaped a harvest of four more, 115. St. Louis clubs were second and New York outfits third in each circuit. Neither team leader, however, touched the mark of 100, established last year by the Athletics.

The grand total of 1,054 home runs is the new mark for the lively ball, exceeding by 117 the record of 937 for both leagues last season.

The homers were fairly evenly divided between the leagues, the Nationals rapping out 529 and the Americans 525.
